

Marco R. Fuchs

Chief Executive Officer of OHB SE, Bremen

© Bettina Conradi

Marco Fuchs, born in 1962, studied law in Berlin and Hamburg. After his legal traineeship, he worked as a lawyer in Hamburg. He then completed a master's degree (LLM) at New York University. After his admission as Attorney-at-Law he worked for the American law firm Jones Day in New York and later in Frankfurt. In 1995 Mr. Fuchs returned to Bremen. Initially, he worked as an authorized signatory at OHB System GmbH, the family company founded by his parents, and has been Chief Executive Officer of OHB System AG since 2011.

He has been CEO of OHB SE, the Group's holding company, since November 2000. OHB SE is Germany's first listed space and technology company, employing approx. 3,000 people.

Marco Fuchs has been Honorary Consul of the Republic of Italy in the State of Bremen since 2008.

In the German Aerospace Industries Association BDLI e.V., he is a treasurer since 2015 and Vice President for Space since 2017. He has been a member of the German government's Science Council since 2019.